Convention Videos (principles & culture)

The following videos were speeches or segments presented at the National Republican Convention. We chose these because they focus on the principles and issues moms care about. These are very powerful and inspirational pieces moms would very much appreciate knowing about as the media is not reporting this information.

Because the speeches were given at the Convention, many of them specifically talk about President Trump. Because of this we have to be careful how we post based on our status. They can be shared on personal pages with no problem but if they are shared on c3 or c4 Facebook or other social media platforms you may need to be more cautious in how you post them. We have included some suggested text for you to consider when posting.

Please view the videos before posting to determine how best to post for your specific audiences. Most of the videos are less than 5 minutes.
